Dear Friends,

I will be out of town this weekend. Filling in for me on Saturday will be Fr. Thomas Hobbs, and on Sunday, Fr. Gerald Buckley. Please give them a warm welcome.

The tents are down, the kitchen is quiet, and the rain has stopped! Another Oktoberfest is now a memory. We will be able to give you the bottom line on how we did financially in the next few weeks after all our bills have been paid. Once again, you have all offered your talents and your time and come together as a family to make this a success. God has truly blessed Most Holy Rosary Parish.

For October 8th, the Marriage Enhancement classes will meet in the Church; and the NET Retreat will use the Church hall.

After the 5pm Mass on Saturday – October 17th, our Parish Historian, Frank Kovarick, has arranged to have Joe Titti come and speak on “A Chronological History of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States”. The presentation will last approximately one hour and will include the first U.S. parishes established by the Spanish, Catholicism in the colonies, the formation of the early dioceses, the first churches in Broome County, including some information on our own parish.

God Bless You,
*Father Clarence.
